

MoU-Faculty of Engineering

MOU with Vital Bio-systems Pvt.Ltd.

To strengthen the industry-institute relationship the University has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with medical equipment manufacturer Vital Bio-systems Pvt.Ltd.Chennai on 12.3.2008. The activities are coordinated by department of Biomedical Instrumentation Engineering.

MOU with National Instruments

To enhance research applications the University has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with National Instruments, India for a duration of one year for helping Research and for LabVIEW Academy in the University.(signed on 9.2.12).The activities are coordinated by department of Biomedical Instrumentation Engineering

MOU with ICT Academy of Tamil Nadu

The University has signed a memorandum of understanding with the ICT Academy of Tamil Nadu (ICTACT) on 29.02.12. Through this MOU, the university has become the Associate Nodal centre of ICT Academy. This will enable ICTACT to provide industry-relevant training programmes in the Information and Communication Technology spectrum to the faculty members of the university so that they could assist the students to be readily available for corporate sectors. The ICT Academy seeks to bridge industry and institutions gaps through structured training programmes addressing teachers of Engineering. The activities are coordinated by Computer Science and Engineering.

MOU with International Institute

The university has signed MOU with IFM, Tanzania for conducting M.Sc IT and Management course. The activities are coordinated by department of Information Technology.